A Passage From the Holy Quran

وَإِذْ قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ بَنِي
 إِسْرَءِيلَ إِنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِلَيْكُمْ مُّصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ
 مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ وَمُبَشِّرًا بِرَسُولٍ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِي اسْمُهُ
 أَحْمَدُ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالُوا هَذَا إِسْحَرُ مُبِينٌ *
 وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكُذِبَ وَهُوَ يُدْعَى
 إِلَى الْإِسْلَامِ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ * يُرِيدُونَ
 لِيُطْفِئُوا نُورَ اللَّهِ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَاللَّهُ مُتِمُّ نُورِهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ
 الْكَافِرُونَ * هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَى وَدِينِ
 الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ *

"And remember when Jesus, son of Mary, said, 'O children of Israel, surely I am Allah's Messenger unto you, fulfilling that which is before me of the Torah, and giving glad tidings of a Messenger who will come after me. His name will be Ahmad.' And when he came to them with clear proofs, they said, 'This is clear enchantment.'"

"But who could do greater wrong than one who forges the lie against Allah while he is called to Islam? Allah guides not the wrongdoing people."

"They desire to extinguish the light of Allah with the breath of their mouths, but Allah will perfect His light, even if the disbelievers hate it."

"He it is Who has sent His Messenger with the guidance and the Religion of truth, that He may cause it to prevail over all religions, even if those who associate partners with God hate it." (61:7-10).

SAYINGS OF THE HOLY PROPHET

Abu Hurairah relates that the Holy Prophet said: Hasten to do good for soon there will be a succession of disorders like the chasing darknesses of night; a person will start the day believing and will end it disbelieving, or go to bed believing and get up in the morning disbelieving. He will be ready to sell his faith for a worldly advantage (Muslim)

Utbah ibn Harith relates: I joined the afternoon Prayer led by the Holy Prophet in Medina. The moment he concluded the service he stood up quickly and proceeded to one of his chambers stepping across the shoulders of the worshippers. People were perplexed by such haste. When he came back he perceived that people were wondering what had called him away so urgently. So he said: I recalled that there was left with me a piece of silver (or gold) and this disturbed me. I have now arranged for its distribution. (Bokhari). Another version is: There was left with me a piece of silver (or gold) which was meant for charity. I was disturbed that it should remain with me overnight.

Abu Hurairah relates that a man came and asked the Holy Prophet: Which giving away in charity is most acceptable to God? He answered: That which you give away while you are in good health, seeking wealth, fearing adversity and hoping for prosperity. Do not delay spending in charity till you are in extremity and say: To So and So this, and to So and So that; for by then they already belong to So and So (Bokhari and Muslim)

Abu Hurairah relates that the Holy Prophet said: Hasten to do good before you are overtaken by one of seven misfortunes; perplexing adversity, corrupting prosperity, disabling disease, babbling dotage, sudden death, the worst apprehended Anti-Christ, the Hour, and the Hour will be most grievous and most bitter (Tirmidhi).

EDITORIAL:

William Safire's Malicious Attack on Islam

By the beginning of 1984, President Amin Jemayel awakened to the obvious reality that his earlier surrender to the so called peace terms with Israel was no peace at all. It was only going to turn Lebanon into a puppet state dominated by Israel for an indefinite future. Under the proposed agreement, any withdrawal of Israeli occupying forces was at the cost of virtual surrender of Lebanon's sovereignty. President Jemayel had initially accepted the unjust and harsh terms under strong American coercion. But finally he realized that it would only bring humiliation and permanent subjugation to his country.

Of course, the cancellation of the proposed agreement was bound to make some people unhappy. Among these is William Safire, a regular columnist of New York Times. In its issue of March 5th, Safire has alleged that the revocation of this "agreement" would upset the balance "that once made possible a free, Western-oriented Lebanese state." Instead, it will "be tilted toward Moslem dominance."

It is clear that Mr. Safire's queer definition of freedom means rule of a minority of his liking over a majority that he seems to dislike. Surely, he must know that no census was taken in Lebanon under the French rule, lest it may show that Muslims were in majority. He cannot be ignorant of the fact that the Muslim population of Lebanon has since then increased considerably as a consequence of the expulsion of Palestinians from Israeli occupied territory.

Mr. Safire feels so incensed by this development that he has availed this opportunity to compare the Islamic and Christian values. Although he claims that he is not to disparage any religion yet he calls this allegation "indisputable" that "more personal freedom, religious tolerance and free economic competition exists in Christian than in Islamic lands."

It should be clear to anybody, except one who is blinded by prejudice, that any such generalization can be extremely misleading. One can easily cite numerous examples of the suppression of freedom and practice of religious intolerance in many non-Muslim countries. One can only refer to the reports of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights to learn about the widely-practiced systematic oppression, infringement of fundamental individual freedoms and basic human rights in many Western nations. Included among those which have been condemned by the United Nations are such countries as South Africa and Israel, not exactly known for a majority of Muslim population. Of course, there are several Muslim countries also where their present governments have followed the extremist policies of intolerance. But their shortcomings should not be taken as an excuse by anybody to spread malicious and misleading generalizations.

Mr. Safire will be doing great service to mankind if, rather than finding fault with the practices of certain Muslim governments, he would devote his attention to study the teachings of the faith of Islam on human rights. Islam stands unique among the religions of mankind to emphasize the duties and obligations of each individual to other fellow-beings. Only by practicing the concepts of justice and equality for all can the human welfare be adequately promoted and fostered. Not only Islam furnishes a framework of beliefs but also it teaches to create such environment in which basic human rights including freedom of belief can be practiced.

There cannot be any excuse to practice intolerance in the light of the teachings of the Quran: "Verily, there is no compulsion in the matter of faith." A Muslim is enjoined to accept all messengers of God and believe in all revelation vouchsafed before Muhammad. Specifically, the Holy Quran endorses the "guidance and light" contained in The Torah and Injeel, the revelation received by Moses and Jesus.

The Quran does not enjoin the acceptance of its teachings blindly. It urges observation, reflection and the application of reason. Again and again it draws attention to the fact that all mankind is bound together in ties of kinship. The Holy Prophet Muhammad observed:

"None of you can be a believer unless he should desire for his brother what he desires for himself."

The Holy Quran has very emphatically directed against every form of trespass whether against the person, property, honor or good name of another.

Mr. Safire has particularly pointed his accusing finger toward the Muslims on the grounds of tolerance. Here again the Islamic teachings are unequivocal in the defense of freedom of thought and conscience. As the Holy Quran says:

"Proclaim: It is the Truth from your Lord; wherefore let him who will, believe, and let him who will, disbelieve." (10:100).

"Proclaim: 'O ye people, now has the truth come from your lord. So whosoever follows the guidance, follows only for the good of his own soul, and whosoever errs, errs only to his loss. I am not appointed a keeper over you.'" (10:109).

In sharp contrast to these teachings are some of the so called "democracies" with "Western values" who do not hesitate to close down even the institutes of learning of their adversaries in the territories occupied by them on the grounds that the students and faculties of those institutes have differences of opinion with the ideology that the ruling power attempts to forcibly impose upon all people.

Mr. Safire's malicious criticism, of course, in no way justifies the fundamentalist tendencies of some Islamic regimes interpreting Islam in a way that can only bring shame and disgrace to its good name. On the other hand, their misguided policies should not lead columnists like Mr. Safire to hurl false and baseless accusations against Islam.

THE ADVENT OF THE REFORMER OF OUR AGE THE TEACHINGS AND THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS

By
Sir Muhammad Zafrulla Khan

FOREWORD

Sir Muhammad Zafrulla Khan, the author of the following letter addressed to the Heads of several countries, enjoys an eminent position both with the Ahmadiyya Muslim community and the contemporary world.

Born in the last decade of the 19th century, during the life of the Founder of the Ahmadiyya Movement, he is one of those rare personalities today who received the privilege of beholding his blessed countenance and making the covenant of allegiance at his hands.

Sir Zafrulla's life is full of extraordinary and multi-faceted experiences. After an outstanding career of a decade of practicing law, he was elected as a member of the Punjab Legislative Council. His term as a law-maker was followed by appointment to the Executive Council of India's Governor-General. After a period of exceptional administrative accomplishments, he became a Judge of the Supreme Court of India where he left an impressive record as an outstanding Jurist.

In 1947, he became the first Foreign Minister of Pakistan. Those were the formative years of the foreign policy of this newly born nation. His achievements at the United Nations led him to be elected as Judge of the International Court of Justice twice where he also served as the World Court's President from 1970 to 1973.

His brilliant record of an exceptional career in various fields has been acknowledged by many universities and institutes of learning which have conferred upon him honorary degrees of distinction.

Above all, however, he has been a dedicated and sincere servant of the Almighty. He has served the cause of propagating Islam, the true faith of Allah, throughout his life with untiring devotion. He has written numerous books dealing with the teachings of Islam. At the present age of 91, he is still actively busy in the service of God.

We are indeed privileged to reproduce below a circular letter which he wrote to remove some major misunderstandings about the Ahmadiyya beliefs. This brief but concise, discourse reflects his deep concern for the Muslims, indeed for the whole world, to bring it together in an understanding of the truth of Islam, the perfect guidance for all mankind.

A REVELATION OF THE PROMISED MESSIAH

"We shall deliver thee and We shall exalt thee. I am with you and with members of your family. I shall honor you in a wondrous manner. Supplication has been heard. I shall come to thee suddenly with my hosts. Your prayer has been accepted. I shall stand with My Messenger. I shall send down blessings and shall grant respite from My chastisement. I shall bestow upon you that which shall endure." (Haqq-e-qatul Wahy, pp. 87, 90, 96 and 103).

HAZRAT MIRZA GHULAM AHMAD OF QADIAN
THE PROMISED MESSIAH AND MAHDI
THE REFORMER OF OUR AGE

INTRODUCTION

Reflection over verses 30 and 31 of chapter 9 of the Holy Quran reveals that at one time the efforts of the Jews and Christians would be intensified and their propaganda against Islam would assume a new aspect. The immediately succeeding verse (9:32) runs as follows:

"They will seek to extinguish the light of Allah by blowing through their mouths, but Allah will utterly reject everything except the perfection of His light, even though the disbelievers may resent it."

This verse clearly indicates that their propaganda against Islam would be carried on mainly verbally, through speeches, writings, pamphlets, books and literature. But all their efforts would be frustrated by counterblasts that would be inspired by the spiritual power of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. This is proclaimed in verse 33, which runs as follows:

"He it is Who sent His Messenger with guidance and the True religion, that He may make it prevail over every other religion, even though those who associate partners with Allah may resent it."

THE TRIUMPH OF ISLAM IN THE LATTER DAYS

It has been common ground among Muslims of all persuasions that the triumph of Islam over other religions in the latter days would be achieved through the Mahdi, who would appear in the beginning of the fourteenth century of the Hegira. With the decline of moral and spiritual standards among the Muslims, many of their divines lost heart and being themselves bereft of the deeper knowledge of the Holy Quran and its high and profound philosophy, began to give currency to the utterly false and defeatist notion that the triumph of Islam over other religions would be brought about by the use of force by the Mahdi. This notion is not only revolting and repugnant to reason and good sense, it is directly contradictory of the express and mandatory pronouncement of the Holy Quran:

"There shall be no compulsion in religion, for guidance and error have been clearly distinguished.(2:257).

Indeed, no faith, doctrine or philosophy can be deemed to be based on truth which seeks acceptance through force.

The Mahdi was to establish the superiority of Islam through a detailed and reasoned exposition of the philosophy of Islam enshrined in the Holy Quran. His mind would be illumined by divine revelation. He would be inspired by the grace of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, with whom he would be so perfectly identified spiritually as had been expressed by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, in his pronouncement:

"He will be buried along with me in my grave."

Thus his advent would be a second spiritual advent of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, as is indicated in the Holy Quran (62:4).

THE TIME OF THE MAHDI'S ADVENT

The Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, clearly indicated the time of the advent of the Mahdi, in a manner that cannot be gainsaid. He announced:

"There are two signs of our Mahdi which have never been manifested for any claimant since the creation of heaven and earth. They are that the moon will be eclipsed in the month of Ramadhan on the first of the nights appointed for its eclipse, and that the sun will be eclipsed in the same month of Ramadhan on the middle one of the days appointed for its eclipse" (Sunan Dar Qutni, Vol. I, p. 188).

This meant that the advent of the Mahdi, designated by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, as our Mahdi, would be marked by the eclipse of the moon in the month of Ramadhan on its thirteenth night, and be the eclipse of the sun in the same month of Ramadhan fifteen days later, as the lunar eclipse occurs on the 13th, 14th or 15th night of the moon and the solar eclipse occurs on one of the last three days of the lunar month. This particular phenomenon manifested itself in the eastern hemisphere in respect of the moon on 21st March, and in respect of the sun on 6th April, 1894, and was repeated in the western hemisphere in 1895.

THE IMPACT OF THE ECLIPSE PHENOMENON

This manifestation calls for serious reflection. In one aspect it was a manifestation which was determined by the law governing the movement of the planets, and there was no room in it for human intervention; yet in another aspect it was a grand sign in support of the truth of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. He could not have known or guessed that such a manifestation would take place 1260 years after his death. Even if such a manifestation had occurred just by itself, its prediction twelve and a half centuries earlier would have been conclusive proof of the truth of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. But it did not stand alone. It had another splendid and glorious aspect.

Its occurrence was to serve as a warning that the Mahdi had appeared and that those who were awaiting his advent should seek him, accept him and obey him so that they might thus participate in the glorious revival of Islam which God had decreed would be achieved through that devoted servant of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, the Mahdi, and his followers. If despite this manifestation it was found that the Mahdi had not appeared, the truth of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, would have been questioned by the opponents of Islam and of the Holy Prophet. But if it was found that before this manifestation a devoted servant of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, who had led a pure and blameless life in accord with the teachings of Islam, and who was a constant recipient of divine revelation, had, under divine command, proclaimed that he was the Mahdi, the manifestation would be hailed as a conclusive and glorious confirmation of the truth of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, and of such a claimant and of Islam.

BRAHEEN AHMADIYYA'S PUBLICATION

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian, India, who was born on 20th February, 1835, and died on 26th May, 1908, began to receive divine revelation around 1876, and continued to receive it with greater and greater frequency throughout the rest of his life. In 1878-1882 he wrote his epoch-making book Braheen Ahmadiyya in which he demonstrated completely the superiority of Islam over other faiths in such a manner that he was unanimously acclaimed by the leading contemporary Muslim divines of India as the greatest champion of Islam.

THE IMPACT OF BRAHEEN AHMADIYYA

For instance, Maulvi Muhammad Husain of Batala, leader of the Ahle Hadees sect, published in his journal Ishaatus Sunnah (Vol. VII, Nos. 6-11) a detailed review of the book in the opening part of which he observed:

The author of Braheen Ahmadiyya, according to the testimony of friends and foes, regulates his life according to the law of Islam and is a pious and truthful person. In our opinion, keeping in mind the age and its circumstances, this is a book the equal of which has not been published in Islam to this day, whatever may happen hereafter. The author has proved himself so steadfast in the service of Islam in every respect, that few such instances are to be found among the Muslims. If anyone should be disposed to consider our language an instance of Asiatic exaggeration, he should point out at least one book which refutes the opponents of Islam so forcefully and emphatically. He should name three or four such helpers of Islam who are determined to serve Islam with all they have and who have challenged the opponents of Islam and those who deny the possibility of revelation to come and satisfy themselves that the challenger is himself a recipient of revelation. It is well-known that Satanic suggestions are mostly false, but not one of the revelations received by the author of Braheen Ahmadiyya has been proved false up to this day. Can any Muslim follower of the Quran believe that Satan can be given knowledge, like the prophets and angels, of that which is hidden so that not one of the disclosures of the hidden should lack truth?

He concluded with:

The author of Braheen Ahmadiyya has, by writing this book, safeguarded the honor of the Muslims and has challenged the opponents of Islam forcefully and emphatically. He has announced to the whole world that anyone who doubts the truth of Islam should come to him and should witness its intellectual and spiritual proofs based on the Quran, and the miraculous manifestations of the prophethood of Muhammad, peace be upon him.

HAZRAT AHMAD JAN'S REVIEW

A saintly Sufi, Hazrat Ahmad Jan of Ludhiana, wrote:

That great personage, benefactor of mankind, source of benevolence and beneficence, personal proof of Islam, honored above the commonalty and the nobility, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, may his blessings endure, Chief of Qadian, has written a book in Urdu designated Braheen Ahmadiyya. This book establishes the truth of Islam and of the Prophethood of Muhammad, peace be upon him, and of the Holy Quran, through three hundred strong proofs of various types and refutes all religions opposed to Islam by convincing reasoning. The verses of the Holy Quran that are cited on their appropriate occasions in this book amount to two thirds of the whole Quran. In this fourteenth century of Islam, great confusion prevails among the followers of every religion. At this time a book was needed like the Braheen Ahmadiyya and a Reformer was needed like Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad who is ready to prove the claims of Islam to the satisfaction of its opponents.

He added

The author of the Braheen Ahmadiyya is not one of the common run of divines and spiritual preceptors; but has been specially commissioned by God and is a recipient of revelation. Hundreds of revelations, prophecies, true dreams, divine directions, glad tidings and intimations of triumph and divine help and divine guidance, couched in various languages, have been set out in this book, supported by the testimony of hundreds of opponents of Islam which establishes their truth and proves that the author has doubtlessly written this book under divine direction. It is also clear that, according to the Hadith of the Holy Prophet, peace be on him, that Allah, Lord of Glory and Honor, would raise among the Muslims, at the beginning of every century, one who would revive the faith, the author of this book is the Reformer of the 14th Century and is a profound scholar. He is one of the most perfect individuals of the Muslim Community. This is also supported by another Hadith of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, wherein he is reported to have said:

"The true divines among my followers will be like the Prophets of Israel." (Ta'assurate Qadian, pp.66-68).

Maulvi Muhammad Sharif, of Bangalore, South India, wrote in his paper Manshoor Muhammadi:

This book Braheen Ahmadiyya, is a peerless publication in its proof of the truth of the Quran and of the prophethood of the Holy Prophet. The author has proved the truth of Islam by such positive arguments that every just person would acknowledge that the Quran is the Book of Allah, that the prophethood of the Holy Prophet is righteous, that Islam is a faith established by God and that a Muslim is instructed in the truth. There is here such a multiplicity of proofs that no way of escape and no possibility of denial has been left open to an opponent. Every argument is clear, every proof is bright. The book is a mirror of faith and is full of the Quran to the brim. It leads to the straight path, it is a torch that lights up the true way. It is a treasury of truth, it is a mine of guidance, it acts like lightning on the stores of the enemy and burns up all his arguments. For the Muslims it is a strong support for the Holy Book and is a bright proof of the Mother of the Book. It has unsettled and disturbed every enemy of religion.

SOME MORE PUBLICATIONS

In March 1889 Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad initiated the Ahmadiyyah Movement in Islam.

In 1890 he wrote three books, Fateh Islam, Tauzeeh Maram and Izalahe Auham. All three were published in the early part of 1891. In these books he set forth, under divine direction, his claim of being the Mahdi and Promised Messiah, whose advent in the latter days had been foretold by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him (See Ibn Majah, Chapter: Sharrataz Zaman; Musnad Ahmad bin Hanbal, Vol.II; Bokhari, Chapter: Advent of the Messiah). This claim aroused bitter opposition and the Muslim divines, led by Maulvi Muhammad Hussain of Batala, who had earlier been a great admirer and enthusiastic supporter of his, almost unanimously denounced him as an infidel, outside the pale of Islam. They hurled vile abuse at him, proclaimed him an apostate from Islam, and some of them went so far as to declare that his assassination would be a highly meritorious act and that whoever accomplished it would be straightaway admitted to paradise.

TWO SIGNS OF THE MAHDI'S ADVENT

As has been mentioned, the two signs of the advent of the Mahdi which had been proclaimed by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, were clearly manifested a little more than three years after Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad announced his claim of being the Mahdi—a clear proof of the truth of his claim. It is noteworthy that the fourteenth century has passed without any one beside Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad claiming to be the Mahdi whose advent had been foretold by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. His rejection, therefore, would amount to the rejection of a grand prophecy of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, and would furnish the opponents of Islam with an excuse to question the truth of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, which must be avoided.

The two signs announced by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, are not, however, the only conclusive proof of the truth of the claim of Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad. There are many others, too numerous to be set out in a brief statement like this one. Mention may be made of one or two fundamental ones.

The crucial question is that Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad affirmed that from about his fortieth year he had been a constant recipient of divine revelation. If this affirmation of his was true, it must necessarily follow that all his claims based on divine revelation, or derived from it, were true and must be accepted. If his affirmation was false, he was an impostor and he must be condemned as such.

THE CRITERION OF A RIGHTEOUS LIFE

One criterion that the Holy Quran has laid down for determining the truth or falsehood of a claimant of the receipt of revelation is expressed as follows:

"Say to them: Had Allah so willed, I would not have recited it (the Quran) to you, nor would He have made it known to you. I have spent a whole life time among you before this, will you not then understand." (10:17)

The attention of the disbelievers is here drawn to the utter purity of the Holy Prophet's life even before the divine call came to him, so as to impress upon them that he who had throughout led a righteous life would not suddenly, on arriving at full maturity, start fabricating lies against God.

In the case of Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad also, in the revelation vouchsafed to him, God Almighty invited attention to the purity of his life from the very beginning as proof of the truth of his claim, in the same words as had been employed in the Holy Quran with reference to the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, namely:

"I have spent a whole life-time among you before this, will you not then understand" (Nazoolul Masih, p.212).

He himself invited attention to the purity of his life in the following words:

"You cannot point to any fault, imposture, falsehood or deceit in my previous life so that you could say that one who was already given to falsehood and imposture had only added to his previous falsehoods another imposture. Which of you can criticize anything in my previous life? It is the grace of God that from the very beginning He established my life along the lines of righteousness. This is a proof for those who reflect. (Tadhkaratush Shahadatain, p. 62).

Throughout his life none ever charged him with uttering a falsehood. It is not to be imagined, therefore, that one who was so wholly committed to the truth in all aspects of his life would be guilty of the heinous falsehood that God spoke to him, if in fact He did not.

CONSEQUENCES OF FABRICATION

All Muslims believe firmly that according to the Holy Quran a person who fabricates something himself and attributes it to God cannot flourish at all and is bound to be frustrated and ruined by God. This doctrine is based upon the following verses of the Holy Quran:

"Had he (Muhammad) fabricated any saying and attributed it to Us, We would surely have seized him by the right hand and then surely We would have severed his large artery; and not one of you could have hindered Us." (69:45-48).

This is an awesome warning to every daring impostor. A person, wholly misguided or out of his mind, might claim that he is God and may suffer no visible harm. The divine mercy may be pleased to overlook his aberration, inasmuch as such a claim is not likely to mislead or confuse any sensible person. The case is entirely different where a person claims to be the recipient of divine revelation. If his claim is false and he persists in it deliberately, he might become the cause of the error and misguidance of a large number of people. God Almighty has, therefore, set forth in these verses His firm and clear warning that an impostor would not escape His wrath and His chastisement.

Since the time of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, there have appeared many false claimants of the receipt of divine revelation and in no single instance has any of them escaped the doom that is pronounced in these verses. In every case divine judgment has overtaken the offender and he has been visibly ruined.

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad was the constant recipient of divine revelation over a period well beyond thirty years. The revelation vouchsafed to him carried within itself numberless proofs of its genuineness and truth. It was replete with grand prophecies, spiritual insights, knowledge of things divine—hidden and overt, glad tidings and warnings for friend and foe and spiritual guidance at the highest level.

A DIVINE GUARANTEE

His life was exposed to every hazard. He had been condemned as an infidel, an apostle from Islam. Leading Muslim divines had declared that his assassination would be a highly meritorious act and that whoever compassed his death would thereby prove himself worthy of paradise. Yet not only did he enjoy complete immunity from divine chastisement, which is appointed as the portion of an impostor, he marched from triumph to triumph all through his life and was obviously one who was greatly favored by God within the meaning of the final verse of Surah Fatihah. Far from being exposed to divine wrath for his alleged impostures, as was imagined and alleged by his opponents, he had been bestowed a divine guarantee of security (Tadhkirah, p. 149) in the same words in which the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, had been guaranteed security, namely: Allah will safeguard thee against harm by people (5:68); a guarantee that was as completely fulfilled in his case as it had been fulfilled in the case of his revered master, the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. Not only was his physical security fully safeguarded, he was also completely safeguarded in respect of his freedom, dignity and honor. False charges were brought against him and he was hauled into court to answer them. In every case he was honorably discharged or acquitted and all the malicious designs of his enemies were completely frustrated. In one of those cases he was charged with so grave an offense as conspiracy to murder. Yet the proceedings took a course in which his honor, dignity and innocence were so completely upheld and vindicated that not only were his opponents utterly frustrated in their evil designs, but suffered great humiliation and were exposed to prosecution in respect of the false charge they had made. But he declared that his case was pending before God Almighty and that he would not initiate proceedings against his enemies in a court of law.

OTHER SIGNS OF THE MESSIAH'S ADVENT

The Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, had said that in his second advent the Messiah would defend Islam, break the cross and kill swine (Abu Daud, Book Al-Malaham, Chapter: Khurujud-dajjal). This prophecy of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, was fulfilled in a striking manner by Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, who was designated by God in one of the revelations vouchsafed to him as the Champion of Allah in the mantles of the prophets (Tadhkirah, p. 148). His outstanding defense of Islam is acknowledged even by his opponents. He effectively exposed the falsity of the Christian affirmation that Jesus had died upon the cross and thus destroyed the entire basis of the doctrines of the Atonement, Resurrection and physical ascension to heaven. Under divine direction he was able to demonstrate that having been delivered from the cross, and having met his disciples several times in his physical body, he parted from them and travelled through the countries in which the so-called lost tribes of Israel were scattered after the Babylonian captivity and eventually settled in Kashmir where he died and was buried in Khanyar, a suburb of Srinagar. He set all this out in his book, Masih Hindostan Men (Jesus in India). Since the publication of that book, the tomb of Jesus in Srinagar has become a shrine and a place of pilgrimage. In consequence of the exposure of the myth of the death of Jesus upon the cross by Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, the doctrine of the divinity of Jesus is being described as a myth by some dignitaries of the Church. The cross has been effectively broken.

THE AHMADIYYA COMMUNITY

By establishing a community whose motto is "Faith Must Have Priority Over Every Worldly Concern," Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad declared war upon every type of vice and impurity. That was the metaphorical killing of swine. He himself led a wholly blameless, pure and beneficent life, which followed in the minutest detail the pattern that had been established by the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. He founded a community, the members of which are required to illustrate in their daily lives all the social, moral and spiritual values inculcated by Islam, of which the highest example was furnished in the life of the Holy Prophet of Islam, peace be upon him. They are drawn from every walk of life and are practical men pursuing the whole range of beneficent activities, according to the teachings of Islam.

They do not reject the normal values of life and have set enviable examples of full, successful and highly beneficent lives. The distinguishing feature of their lives is the upholding of the moral and the spiritual above the material and the physical in a pattern of beneficent coordination. As taught by Islam, they believe that the faculties and capacities bestowed upon man by God Almighty are a precious bounty and must be beneficently developed and exercised at their proper time and occasion and are not to be suppressed or stultified. The moral and spiritual code to which they seek to conform imposes no handicap upon them. There have, by the grace and mercy of God, appeared among them, persons possessing high eminence in almost every sphere of human life.

ARABIC—THE MOTHER OF TONGUES

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad had been bestowed by divine favor vast and deep knowledge and understanding of the Holy Quran, miraculous proficiency in the Arabic language and an extraordinary insight into divine secrets with which, according to the Holy Qur'an, only divine Messengers are favored (72:27). In his book, Minanur Rahman, he developed his thesis that Arabic was the mother of tongues, which came as a happy surprise even to eminent Arab lexicographers. However, he claimed nothing on his own. He stressed repeatedly that every favor that had been bestowed upon him was bestowed by virtue of the spiritual grace of the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, to whom he was passionately and whole-heartedly devoted. He gave expression to his all-consuming love for the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him, in heart-moving prose and verse in Arabic, Persian and Urdu.

LOVE FOR THE HOLY PROPHET

His love for and devotion to the Holy Qur'an were matched only by his overpowering love for and utter devotion to the Holy Prophet, peace be upon him. He warned that the pattern of human life was about to be profoundly affected in vital aspects, and that he had been raised to set forth, under divine guidance, from the Holy Qur'an, the guidance and the philosophy that mankind would need in the epoch that was approaching and thus to establish the supremacy of Islam over all other faiths which had been foretold in the Holy Qur'an (9:33). Some concept of the magnitude of the service that he performed in that behalf may be formed by a perusal of the English rendering of his paper entitled The Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam, which was read at the Conference of Great Religions held in Lahore in the last week of December, 1896.

REVELATIONS FULFILLED

In conclusion, attention may be drawn, by way of illustration, to the striking manner in which one of the early revelations vouchsafed to him has been and continues to be fulfilled. He belonged to Qadian, a small town in the most backward province of India, eleven miles from the nearest telegraph office and railway station and thirty five miles from the nearest city in which a printing press was available. In this situation, when he was little known and lacked all worldly resources, the divine call came to him that he must gird himself to the service of Islam, so as to demonstrate its superiority to all other faiths, and he was comforted with the divine assurance:

*"I shall carry thy message to the ends of the earth

In the estimation of the worldly, this sounded as a lunatic's boast. It is true that from the very first some of the righteous minded responded to his call and despite ridicule and all manner of persecution, set a high and enviable example of firmness of faith, loyalty, devotion and purity of life; but progress was slow, and by the time of his death in 1908, his community numbered not more than half a million and his message had scarcely been carried beyond India. Even so, having regard to the bitter opposition that it encountered and the severe persecution to which the small, but devoted, band of his followers was exposed, his enemies had been seriously perturbed at their daily growing numbers. They breathed a sigh of relief at his death, that what they had esteemed a grave heresy would now suffer its natural death and they need take no more account of it. But kindly observe what happened. The Ahmadiyya Movement in Islam was initiated in 1889. Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad announced his claim of being the Mahdi and Promised Messiah in early 1891. At the time of his death the number of his followers did not exceed half a million, and few of them lived outside India.

AHMADIYYA COMMUNITY'S PROGRESS

Today, no more than a little over seventy four years after his death, the membership of the Movement exceeds ten million, and is growing in geometrical progression. Its branches are strung around the globe in all the continents. It is accounted the most dynamic missionary Movement in Islam. Its members have set a unique example of upholding moral and spiritual values of Islam. This is not the doing of man; it is a manifestation of the grace of Allah, the Supreme.

Its opponents have nothing to offer but confusing and outworn niceties of doctrine. They are wedded to the letter that killeth, and are bereft of the spirit of righteousness that alone revives and bestows life. That spirit can be kindled and fostered only by Allah's grace, which may be won through steadfastness and prayer, as the Holy Quran directs (2:46).

CONCLUSION

The basic cause of the malaise that afflicts the Muslims is their turning away from Allah, and their pursuit of self-devised remedies. The true and effective remedy is that they must turn to Allah and hold fast to Him and follow in every respect His design rather than their own devices.

May Allah, of His mercy and grace, enable us to embrace humbly and sincerely the guidance that He has provided for us so that we may become His instruments for the consummation of the glorious supremacy of Islam. Amen.
